Better Tone Quality for the Price Is Secured in These Used Pianos

If you want a piano for practice work; for the children to be free to play; for semi-public use; or you simply want to get better tone qualities than you can get in a new instrument, for the price you wish to pay—

This Sale Brings Your Opportunity

You can always get the value out again, when you are ready for an entirely new piano. In fact, many in this collection look just like new. Some have simply been out on rental, and you get the advantage of the rent that has been paid.

Another fine feature of the sale is the group of

Angelus Players at $125—Just Half Price

Of course, they are earlier models, that have been exchanged for later ones. But they have all been back to the factory, and brought up to date as fully as possible. They play all the newest music, as well as the old—have the Paraphrasing Lever and other features of the incomparable Angelus. Every one is in perfect condition. And yet JUST HALF the regular price. Just about a dozen left. $125 each—cash, or easy payments.

ORIENTAL RUGS AND CARPETS: Clear-Cut Merchandising Methods Have Changed Conditions Completely

BY Clear Cut Merchandising Method we mean—Buying and selling Oriental Rugs on a merchandising basis.

When we moved into this new building we built up an Oriental Rug store on an ideal foundation. One of the first details was the perfecting of plans to secure Rugs—not in the usual way, by depending upon importers, but by importing direct. To that end a member of the firm, while touring the Orient, engaged a native Rug expert—a resident buyer, who is constantly collecting Rugs and Carpets for Macy's. In the work he has the co-operation of our local buyer, who visits the Far East periodically.

We sell the Rugs at import cost, plus our usual slender margin of profit. No other house distributes the Rugs at prices as low as Macy's. Comparisons prove it—and the marvellous growth of our Oriental Rug business is proof equally convincing.
